Debt, uncontrolled, can be devastating to ones life. A thriving business whose debt has gone unchecked, can find itself suddenly facing chapter 13 or closing it's doors. Statistics show that a once happy and fulfilling marriage can grow cold and eventually end in divorce when debt is not handled properly. I have heard of people who have committed suicide because they had gotten so far into debt, that they felt death was the only way out. Some handle debt better than others. The reasons can be complex. I have tried in this book to make the ridding of debt from your life simple and clear. I take a focused look at the psychological root cause of why one falls back into debt despite great efforts to get out. This gives merit to the age old saying: "The rich gets richer, and the poor gets poorer." We examine the bible scripture that corrects this dilemma where it instructs us to renew our minds. The precise meaning is to renew our mindset. See Ephesians 4 verse 23. I found the term: Debt free too vague for my use. I had fifteen credit cards, at the max, and a mortgage about to fall behind. I found out that by saying out loud what I wanted to happen yielded results. Saying that my J.C. Penny card was paid off was something I could see and do. Saying: "My home is paid for" was something I could see and get motivated to do. By doing this with all fifteen credit cards and my house, I did obtain debt freedom. Treat your goal of (Paid for) like a puzzle. See the big picture , but focus on putting it together piece by piece.

Get the goods on others like they are getting the goods on you with this encyclopedia of advanced investigation and surveillance techniques! Find out how to get any information you want about whomever you want -- and how they (including the government) are getting to your private info. This book covers 11 devices for listening through walls, expert ways to secretly bug any target, how polygraphs can be tricked, getting a 50-state credit/license search and much more!

How To Get Everything You Want Out Of Life There are basic laws in this universe that will work for you if you know how to apply them. They work for anyone who knows they exist and how to use them. The law of electricity works for all of us. We can burn your house down with electricity or you can light your home with it. You don't have to be a genius to do it. A child three years old can push a button and turn the lights on. Millions of people have been taught to believe that the rules of success are indeed so very difficult and complicated that surely they could never learn them. I found out that anyone can be genuinely successful if he will learn the exact same ""rules"" that the successful people learned and use them. These are scientific things that work every time if you will do it in a simple way. ""If you can count to four,"" you can be anything you want to be and can have anything you want to have. A six-step plan for driving a wedge between the competition and the customer For sales people, convincing a potential customer to choose them over the competition is no easy task, and especially when the competition already has the account. Finally, How to Get Your Competition Fired shows readers a proven system for breaking the relationship between the competition and the customer. Randy Schwantz's method, The Wedge(r), includes a six-step plan that drives a "wedge" between the competition and the customer. He shows how to reveal the competition's shortcomings without seeming to, letting prospects decide independently to dump their current provider, exclude other competitors and, finally, switch to the salesperson's product or service. Offering real tactics, not just theory, this is the only sales strategy that really works to break the relationship between customers and the competition and bring in more business, faster than ever. Randy Schwantz (Dallas, TX) is a leading authority and expert on the sales process. A highly successful sales professional, he is a nationally respected sales trainer, author, sales coach, consultant, and public speaker. Randy is President and CEO of
